Punahou Commencement.

On last Saturday evening Charles R. Bishop Hall was the scene of one of the most brilliant happenings of the year. Punahou's commencement is always an event, an important one too, in the annual social calendar of Honolulu, and this year it was as large and lovely an affair as ever in the past.

The stage was banked in palms and ferns, which formed an effective background for the graduating class of 1914 and the other speakers. The hall was crowded, every available seat being occupied, and the handsome and many-colored gowns displayed in the audience added their quota to the brilliancy of the occasion.

An excellent program was given, which included a piano solo by Mr. Vernon Tenney; an address on "The Irish Movement," by Miss Ruth Sober; "Vacuum Tubes," an original experiment, by Mr. Malcolm H. Tuttle; "Modern Art," by Miss Ramona Marks; a vocal solo by Miss Louise Churchill; an address by Mr. George W. Smith, and a number by the Double Quartet. The class gift was presented by Mr. Elbert Tuttle and Rev. John P. Erdman pronounced the invocation and benediction. Considerable interest always awaits the announcement of the winners of the Damon Rhetorical prizes and the award of the Roll of Honor, and enthusiastic applause attended the fortunate ones on Saturday evening. Mr. John O'Dowda was awarded first prize in the rhetorical contest, Miss Thelma Murphy, second, and Ashley Hatch, honorable mention. Mr. Elbert Parr Tuttle received the award of the Roll of Honor and the Trustees' Loving Cup.

The members of this class have taken on a very active interest in school matters, and have left behind them a record which other classes may hope to live up to.

Those who received diplomas on Saturday evening were: The Misses Catherine Ashley, Florence Ballou, Edwina Evertson, Ramona Marks, Dorothy Peterson, Violet Austin, Louise Churchill, Louise Coleman, Mildred Deas, Louise Effinger, Alice Hoogs, Thelma Murphy, Jannett Sharp, Ruth Sober, Genevieve Taggart, Eloise Wehmann; Messrs. Marston Campbell, Jr., Harry Denison, Ralph Gray, James Hild, Dung Wai Ho, Teng On Lok, Goodale Motz, Blakeley McStocker, Jr., Vernon Tenney, Elbert Tuttle, Malcolm Tuttle, Alfred Yap, Joseph Yap, Kenneth Bond, Joseph Goo Foy, Ernest Heen, John O'Dowda, Sakulani Sakai, Brodie Smith, Cassel Walker, George Ing, and Alan Webster. Miss Genevieve Young of last year's class received a piano certificate.

After the exercises the graduates received the congratulations of their relatives and friends, while they were literally buried beneath the loads of beautiful floral offerings which were heaped upon them.

The following clipping regarding the engagement of two popular members of San Francisco's smart set will doubtless be of interest to local readers as both Miss McNear and Mr. Nickel have many friends in Honolulu.

Every one is quite enthusiastic over the engagement of Miss Ernestine McNear and George Nickel, which was announced this week, and society is looking forward to an unusually attractive wedding, for the bride-to-be is an unusually stunning girl, one of that tall willowy, blonde type, with very deep-blue eyes with dark shadows underneath them. Also the groom-elect is considered one of the most attractive of the younger men, being a graduate of Yale and a golfer of championship promise.

Miss McNear is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. McNear of Oakland and the granddaughter of the late George W. McNear and Mrs. McNear, the former having been one of the prominent men of the state. She graduated from Miss Head's School in Berkeley about three years ago and went abroad for a year of travel. She was presented at court in London a year ago and was much sought after by the nobility not only because of her beauty, but her family.

Mr. Nickel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nickel and a brother of Miss Beatrice Nickel, who is one of the beauties of society, and of Leroy Nickel, who is at present at Yale. No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will be an elaborate affair and will take place in Oakland at the home of the bride's parents some time early in the fall. — San Francisco Chronicle.

seen on the courts or the links of the Burlingame and Claremont Country clubs, to which she belongs. John McNear, Seward McNear and Frederick McNear are her uncles, and Mrs. Philip E. Bowles, Mrs. Power Hutchins and Mrs. Edward Lacey Brayton are her aunts. Mrs. Bernard Ford and George Bowles and Mrs. Hiram Johnson, Jr., are her cousins. The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leroy Nickel and a brother of Miss Beatrice Nickel, who is one of the beauties of society, and of Leroy Nickel, who is at present at Yale. No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will be an elaborate affair and will take place in Oakland at the home of the bride's parents some time early in the fall. — San Francisco Chronicle.

News has just been received of the very delightful recital given by the pupils of Mrs. Chisholm Jones at the beautiful Hamakua residence of Mrs. H. A. Baldwin on June 11. The spacious drawing room, which by means of the artistic arrangement of flowers and ferns, had been converted into a veritable bower, was filled to overflowing with Maui's music lovers. The program was an exceptional brilliant one and was keenly appreciated and enthusiastically applauded.

The following numbers were given: Selection—Carmen. Bisset. Miss Mary Hoffman. Trio from Carmen. Bisset. Meddames Baldwin, Case and Jones. Solo—"Could I"—Tosti. Mrs. M. Couch-Rogers. Solo—Flower song from Faust. Mrs. H. A. Baldwin. Solo—"Bird Song"—Cohen. Mrs. Dan Case. Solo—Snowflakes—Cowen. Miss Mary Couch. Duet—"O, That We Two Were Maying"—Alice Smith. Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. Jones. Solo—"Chanson Provencal"—Dell Aqua. Mrs. Jones.

Refreshments were served at prettily decorated tables by a number of dainty little misses, and a most enjoyable afternoon came to a close. "The Chantant" was voted a huge success by the large number of Maui's smart set who attended it.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alfred Shepherd celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage in an entirely unexpected manner. A delightful surprise party was given them at which they were decorated with tin leis appropriate to the occasion, and were showered with useful articles of the same material. The evening was pleasantly spent over a number of interesting games and guessing contests. Later refreshments were served, tin plates and forks being used. The guests, several among whom were present at the wedding of the couple ten years ago, were Dr. F. E. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. John McTaggart, Mr. J. J. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Grandall, Mrs. Dower, Mrs. Olive Clark, Miss Barnett, Miss Werns, Miss Shelton, Mrs. C. Porpe, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ham, Master Gordon Ham, Master Burnett, Mrs. S. L. Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Robbins, Mr. M. Garrett Johnston, Mr. John M. Martin, Miss Charlesworth, Mrs. Colby, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H. Walker, Mr. Ray Shepherd, Miss Edith Ham and Miss Margaret Ham.

Miss Genevieve Hocking entertained on last Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Emily Cooke, who leaves in the near future for the east where she will attend school next year. A number of most interesting games were played, the winners of which were presented with dainty prizes. The guest of honor was presented with a "Memory Book" which is one of the few things in this world which become more precious and more interesting the older they grow. No doubt she will, many times during the next year, live through the happy days in Hawaii of which this book tells the tale. Those present were the Misses Emily Cooke, Edith Carter, Louise Givins, Elaine Damon, Evelyn Breckons, Charlotte Blake, Eileen Dowsett, Tempie Shelton, Adeline Pratt, Maud Sanderson, Rhoda Ballentyne, Helen Church, Margaret Austin, Florence Campbell, Carol Reed, May Walker and the hostess.

Miss Charlotte Blake was hostess at a delightful five-hundred party last Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Eileen Dowsett and Miss Emily Cooke, who are leaving in the near future for the East, where they expect to attend school next year.

The house was very prettily decorated with masses of begonias and maiden hair ferns. After a number of most exciting games, Miss Emily Cooke succeeded in capturing the first prize, while the second was awarded to Miss Clemence Gifford. Miss Evelyn Breckons won the prize for a guessing game, which called for close competition. Lovely little favors were presented to the guests of honor.

Later delicious refreshments were served, concluding a very pleasant afternoon's entertainment. Miss Blake's guests included 30 of her young friends and classmates.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lee entertained at a delightful dinner last Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Hummel, the occasion being the joint wedding anniversary of the two couples. Mr. and Mrs. Hummel celebrated the 13th anniversary of their marriage while Mr. and Mrs. Lee had been married just eight years on that day. The table was prettily decorated with pansies and maidenhair ferns, the centerpiece being a bowl of the dainty little flowers. After dinner the remainder of the evening was spent listening to the pleasant music played on the pianola, a gift to Mrs. Lee from her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee, together with their guests of honor, were the recipients of many useful gifts in remembrance of the day.

Nearly six hundred people attended the luau given last Sunday at Pools Hall, Liliha street, by Mr. and Mrs. David Pao. Jelling in honor of the first anniversary of the birth of their daughter, Mona Nui Jelling. The big hall was elaborately decorated, a quintet club was in attendance and all of the delicacies of the typical Hawaiian luau were served to the invited guests. The luau began at noon and continued for several hours. A number of public officials and prominent men of the city were present. Unfortunately Mrs. Jelling was taken ill and unable to be present, but Mr. Jelling and Baby Mona were there and received hearty congratulations. The occasion was a very enjoyable one from all standpoints.

Mrs. Edward Dekum entertained on Thursday afternoon of last week in honor of Miss Louise Lucas who left for the coast yesterday. The affair was in the nature of a handkerchief shower for the guest of honor who was the recipient of many beautifully embroidered bits of linen. The afternoon was spent very enjoyable at the card tables, those playing being Mrs. A. Hocking, Mrs. Charles Crane, Mrs. S. D. Barnes, Mrs. Edgar Robinson, Mrs. Matthew M. Graham, Mrs. Fred Potter, Mrs. A. Parry, Mrs. R. O. Matheson, Mrs. E. M. Watson, Miss Maude Jordan, Miss Taggart, Miss Victoria Jordan, Miss Hewlings, Miss Barrie Gamble, Miss Lucas and Mrs. Dekum.

Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Westervelt and family, who since the return of the Shinto party, have been traveling in China and the Philippine Islands, are expected to return on the Shinyo Maru due on the third of August. Mr. H. M. Ballou who has been occupying the Westervelts' home during their absence, will spend the month of August at the Volcano with his daughter, Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Castle, Jr., arrived on the Matsunaka and will spend several months in Honolulu as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle. This charming couple spent several weeks recently at the Hotel Bellevue in San Francisco where they were most extensively entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. William Williamson entertained at dinner last week for Mr. and Mrs. Hagens, Mr. Clarence Oleson and Mr. Paul Muhlenhoff. The table was artistically decorated with corgonias and ferns. After a delightful dinner, cards were enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.

Miss Emily Cooke, who expects to leave soon for the east, where she will complete her education, was hostess at a delightful luncheon on last Friday afternoon at Kahala. Her guests included a number of her schoolmates.

Captain and Mrs. Paul B. Malone of the Second Infantry entertained at a delightful tea this afternoon in honor of their daughter who has just returned from Bryn Mawr to spend the holidays in the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Tenney Peck and family are at Kahala where they will spend the vacation months.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waldron are
